SANTA SUSANNA

BARCELONA

Santa Susanna is a town located in the middle of an enviable environment; between the Mediterranean, the Montnegre mountain range and around its stream.

On the one hand, we have more than two kilometres of quality beaches, with clean, coarse, golden sand, and on the other hand, we are at the gates of the Montnegre El Corredor natural park, and precisely because of all this we are the "Oasis of the Mediterranean".

Santa Susanna is much more than beaches, as it also has fields and mountains. It has a rich natural heritage and, due to its privileged location and climate, we have a great diversity of flora and fauna.
